Chapter 1 by Ace Santiago

Steve was a gay in closet. He had few relationships that were kept in secret because he feared that he might lose friends and his family. However, the day came when he have no choice but to lose it all.

Chapter 2 by Logan

He had met Tory on the bus to work one day and they immediately hit it off. They agreed to meet again after they both had finished work that day at the coffee shop opposite the movie theater on Main St. Steve was nervous as always, and it took everything he had just to build up the courage to show up. He walked in the door and saw Tory sitting in the booth next to the jukebox.

Chapter 3 by Wendell Sanders

Feeling both nervous and confused,yet confident Steve walked slowly toward the jukebox with his eyes locked on Tory's long slender body. Who seemed to be sorta reading the menu but Steve could see him glancing slightly over the edge of his menu out of the sides of his eyes. Then their eyes locked and all of the nervous feelings seem to melt away. Tory lowered the menu down away from his face revealing his beautiful hazel eyes and his pale complexion on his oval shaped face. He was cuter than ever before,Steve, thought to himself. He had a dark brown goatee with pink powdery lips and naturally thick eyebrows with long thick eyelashes.Now making eye contact with Tory -- Steve noticed him undressing him with his eyes and it was obvious that the feeling of interest was mutual. Steve was now standing directly in front of the jukebox and he put in some change into the machine. Then he looked over at Tory and said any request? Tory paused for a moment. What request?
